let me drink to your health

SAILORS LAMENT

Oh had I the wings of a seabird in flight over land overseas would I roam As a sailor that swims on the ocean that blue fighting each wave of each storm but I sit with my camera and look at the sky as the seabird that flies to your shore and remember the days of the time that has past when my tears drew a line to your door with my teardrops I've tried by the look in your eyes I will turn my head and say once more

chorus

But I'm caught in this mess no my heart will not rest till I'm back in your eyes as before with my hands on your breast as the ocean so blue
fighting each wave of each storm

to gaze on your lips still this heart will not rest until I look in your eyes as before as sailor that swim to the shore if need be and remember the time that has past as a ship that sails to the end of the earth never knowing where life began

I WORK

I work all night, and I work all day
I get my money, I get my pay where it goes only heaven knows
I work all night, and I work all day

when I come home, I get some sleep who knows where the time does go

I love to watch the sun go down I like to see the sky go red as the stars come out to shine

IF A ROSE

If a rose grows in a garden and a garden in a valley will I ever find the road to your heart

If the valley near a mountain with the river ever flowing will I ever find the way to your heart

*So fly away, fly today so fly away
will I ever find the rose for my love

there are red ones, there are cream ones will I ever find the one for my love

IF THE SHIP COMES IN

If the ship comes in today we'll be on our way no time and tide won't cease we're bound for Australia

My father left Masay in the year of 49
the wind carried his boat away to this land I call my home

As so many men before across the open sea the distant land for me and here we can be free

chorus

Refugees and partisans convicts and freemen all sailing to new land to build they lives again

chorus

We can sail around the world in search of Utopia but my father gave to me
the land of the kangaroo

THE WIND IN THE TREES

*The winds in the trees It calls out your name It speaks for my heart to you I tell you I miss you and wait for you
For the seasons of time will come true, For the seasons of time will come true,*

Be still this heart, that beats out your name
Be still my memory of you
For the seasons of time may turn in to years
And hearts lost will soon be here Yes hearts lost will soon be here

Chorus

If ever a heart it beats out for love
If ever a tale would come true
For the seasons of time may turn into years
And hearts lost will still ring true

Chorus brake

I pick up the fragments from my broken passed And throw it away as the wind
For the seasons of time must I explain In jest I will sing it to you, in jest I will sing it again

Chorus

FOR THE OCEAN

Sounds of life come floating through this window in my mind and I see the ocean climbing up like pools into twine

For there's people rushing everywhere to find the light of day but my heart is in the ocean and that's where I want to stay

For the ocean, for the ocean
carries me away

As the sun beats down upon the sweating, streaming street the waves crash against the shoreline the sand is washed to sea

And a seagul flies overhead as children play on free for the wind brings forth the salt air from the ocean far and deep

chorus

Bouncing waves upon the water flashing light dance out to sea sailing ships upon the ocean sailing to be free

Do we wander through these hillsides, in search of life it seems just to try and find a place to store all our dreams you know the sands of time may wash away these clouds in our mind but in the end hope that only love will rule the sky

chorus

REMEMBER ME MY OLD FRIEND

as I remember you
time has turned us older for time is just a dance* (2)

We played in the school yard and ran around the ground singing in the long grass the music of the young (2)

Throwing stones in water with sweated palms we danced
for life is just a song (2)

chorus

Round and round together
we laughed we sang romanced fighting for each other we never lost our pants (2)

the play ground sounds so empty though children come to play our thoughts are getting colder
we laughed we sang romanced (2)

chorus

Come and dance with me
on this our night
share the world we have
for life is just a dance share the love we had on this our night (2)

My name is Wesley And Mia is my best friend
There is so much to see
There is so much to do
We can make it better
When we stick to the rules

Its our world that we share Come play with me Together we can explore

Chorus

When I say to stop
You know it's the golden rule

I THINK ITS ABOUT TIME

that we took a fishing trip travel across the country down the Princess Highway

We can leave today we can make it in a day where the air is clean near a running water stream (2)

Erratic our tents under clear blue southern skies watch the billy boil sing songs to easy our minds

Drive through the country and watch the grass grow on open fields
we can see for miles and miles

PUTTING OUT THE FIRE

They're putting out the fire they're putting out the fire with gasoline
the flames they're rise much higher the flames they rise much higher with gasoline

And those flames they burn and reach the sky black rain comes down, don't ask me why?

They're flying in the army they're flying in the army on airplanes

MEMORY LANE

Walking down memory lane

DAYS OF WINE AND ROSES

Just another wheel in the cog
In days of wine and roses
Nothing remains the same

So keep up with the change
Let your love of life remain
When it rains, it rains, it rains,

Sweet love a mystery
Beyond that magic time
Let your love shine Keep your head up high
In days of wine and roses

Chorus

I cast my faith to the wind
I keep my head up high I know I won't touch the sky
I won't even try
In days of wine and roses

Just another cog in the wheel

Chorus

SAM GREEN 05/1993

Come with us
Through time and space
A place you will see

Far away from life itself
In peace and harmony Time will stand still For day, as the children play

Voices sing there heart away
And echo through the land

La, la, la.....

Minute comes and minute goes
Then it fades away
Let it drift in to the wind Until it does decay

You and I can change the world
With a single thought People and people go Struggling to be free

La, la, la.....

Wishes of my tongue
Fade in to the night
Though I am a man
I am struggling for a wife

Lover walk with there hand in hand
And love it should be right

La, la, la, la..... First verse chorus

A LITTLE BIT

A little bit of this a little bit of that you fight for what you need if you fancy that

I'll touch the sky
if you dry your eyes and never come down never touch the ground

You can run so fast have you got no time what in your mind will it surely last

Time can heal and love can take you spend your time there are no rules

the owl does sing
the blue moon glows in the howling wind

A FLOWER GROWING FREE

is like a bird in flight in the morning light or as the sun shining bright

Don't take my love away from me
though time will pass keep this memory

And in the morning light awake the bird in flight to sing its song of life as it stays free

A little rain may fall a gentle call to the wind for as the flower grows its seeds blow free

So through the busy years respect the wind and the rain and let the sun shine through have faith in all that you do

chorus

WATER IS LIFE

and life is a river
a river that flows for the sea has no end (all twice)

If water is life
dance with me for time sets us free

chorus

Take my hand around together
take my hand
and dance with me

chorus

chorus

YOUR INSIDE IS OUT

when your outside is in and your inside is looking at me (twice)

So try real slowly and take a breather don't forget to repeat after me

chorus

I can see by your face its open as a window that's starring as a mirror you see

chorus

If I told you the problem you would know the answer and the answer in the question to be

Its not the time to restore the story for the papers lie deep in the pasted

SHE'LL BE RIGHT MATE

you can see it in the wind
you can feel it chorus twice

I know the times been hard and the ground been dry but the rains will, come real soon
and the grounds been dry but the cropes will, grow real soon

That's the time when
we'll dance and sing
and be happy for us all
that's the time when
for the rains will come real soon

chorus

I thank the lord above
and the mother earth
for the land beneath my feet
for the seasons of each year

chorus

SAM GREEN 06/1994 (c.) 1994

YOUR HEART IS A DIAMOND

as precious can be
take care and you'll see

And if the winds blow your castle away
follow your heart and find your day

chorus

And open your eyes to the way of the world find where your going let your heart not stray

chorus

And if we should meet by the side of the road say that you knew me don't pass on by

chorus

The centre of life is within us all how deep is the mind if we have what to share

chorus

ITS A SHAME

Its a shame you don't treat me as you should its a shame no my heart ain't made of wood catch a river as it flows
catch a moonbeam in a star its a shame you don't treat me like you should

It takes more than to heal a broken heart it takes time to mend what deep within catch a rainbow in a jar catch footsteps in one breathe

catch a moonbeam in one star

Had I wings that I could fly had I moonbeams in a row

It a shame that my heart ain't made of wood

Love in love with no one left to find catch a river with one breathe catch another falling star it takes time to heal a broken heart it takes time to build what's in the dark take my heart and take my soul take these strings of love I found it takes more to heal a broken heart

chorus

FREEDOM COMES SLOWLY

I want to fly, like a bird, through the sky, free and high Fly through the sky, I won't look down, I won't look back

Chorus

Freedom comes slowly (2)

Then it fades away

Freedom comes slowly (2)

Don't let it fade away

I want to run like a horse, through the valleys so green, run like the wind over mountains and streams

I want to sing like a dove, all through the day, sing all my cares and my troubles away

Oh a man can not fly, or sing like a dove, but a man he can love and speak of the wind

Chorus

THE RAIN AND I

The rain and I
Cry different tears
But each tear we cry is for reason

Cry different tears
But each tear we cry is for reason

Scatted in the wind
No rain upon my tongue
As empty drops of tears
Turn in to rain drops

To ease the ground
where love is found
On shifting sands
That blow so far

Chorus

Clouds roll on by Over vast and empty sky
In love they will cry
As tear drops

where love is found
That blow so far

Chorus

First verse

Chorus

Love has its answers
Life finds its way People know nothing
Just live forever day

I know I'm right
In this world uncertain
I know I'd do better
If I looked on stand my ground

Chorus

There may be times
When I look and change my point of view look them in the eye and say what I must do

chorus

I'll hold my ground
In due course I'll be through Until that comes
I stand and say to you

Chorus

A TRAVELLED MAN

I know how near how far
We are just who we are

I'm a travelled man
That's what I am

Thou the hills are far away
I'll remember all my day Chorus

Through the desert eyes I've seen
A land that lives in dreams Chorus

I've seen the place where Jesus lay In a castle far away Chorus

They said died for peace of man
And he only had one plan Chorus

Thou the hills are far away
I'll remember all my day Chorus

Through the desert eyes I've seen

Oh I know how near how far
We are just who we are

Chorus

Chorus

SAM GREEN 08/1993

THERE IS A TIME

There's a time for coming together
There's a time to stand in line There's a time for building bridges There's a time to walk but not run

*There's a time, there's a time
You should know what's on your mind
You should pray that there's a time*

There's a time for sharing freedom There's a time to march for love There's a time for hope and praying There's a time to raise your voice

chorus

A time for planting trees
A time to clean each mess
A time for growing older A time to know what true

chorus

There's a time for general consensus There's a time to say the truth
There's a time for more than vision
There's a time to say that's not enough

I AM THE KEEPER

I am the keeper of the light
I climb these stairs each night
So ships may sail these waters free To far off lands, where they, come and go

*If not for me the lighthouse would not shine From this light, they come and go
From the light, by the raging sea
They are free*

The rocks around have tasted many ships
Some did float from far off lands Some do find there way to be
Be what it may, now there history

Chorus

And if it was in my destiny
To build a family by these sands
And share this peaceful world I know
With a harbour view, as they come and go

In the hills around I have many friends Some I known since time began Where once they stood on burning rocks Old friends are like good wine

PENNY

Penny you were a candle to me childhood sister too true to be
and was sometimes glad when he was alone bouncing pebbles, strolling free
after years would you remember me
I was the guy who sipped your tea
one more candle down by the sea

With my wings of life through an endless flight I'm looking back now you're all right though things may fade and shine the day but the sand and time will still remain childhood sister who always played a light to me, your still the same "fur a Elise" down by the sea from troubled times we grew up free

So Penny you are a candle to me
and was sometimes glad when was alone
one more candle, strolling free

I'M A POOR MAN

I own fifteen cars three villas in the south of France a penthouse near New York with a harbour view

*So please don't touch me please don't touch me
a poor man you see*

I went to England to visit the royal queen but she was in Japan or near the Baltic sea

chorus

Money isn't everything sure it can help allot so if you pass my way please don't look me up

chorus

The only love I've known was from my dog and cat I gave them everything until they ran away

Seven lonely children
Wandering through the snow
Their world around was burning There was nowhere left to go

Their house and home had blown up From bombs that glowed so bright Screaming through the night Somehow they survived

Chorus

In dreams as broken rag dolls Barefoot on shattered glass Their world behind was empty Their time had now passed

Bridge

Everyone must have their freedom Everyone must have their life
To live within their means To live in peace is right

Verse

The soldiers somehow found them Tired them up with chains Told us they were enemies Enemies of the state

Chorus

The road of life can be hard my friend Like whiskey on your shoulder
You try so hard but your back does ache
And you're getting older

Try if can but you can make a mends

If you try to read the book of life
To understand each reason You'll blow your mind if you cross that line
And come back in one season

Chorus

Clouds over up the clear sun
In thought of vision
If it don't rain and berth the sky
You'll never understand the season

Brake

Ocean world is deep my friend
Some cry out freedom For love it comes and love it goes Without rhythm or reason

Chorus

Chorus

IF LOVE IS AN APPLE

and tear drops are wine I'll love you tomorrow
please say that you're mine

It may be the winter or April or spring
the heart is within

A tree of a rainbow can grow till its high but never the sun shine
I see in your eyes

So tell me its love dear your heart feels the same we'll dance through the autumn and laugh through the rain

1st verse

Tell me tomorrow
we loved not in vain
we grow just the same

NED KELLY SONG

And you just ride captain ride
On your horse you will glide
And you'll catch Ned Kelly live
If you ride (twice)
Take the money and run
That's all you can do
Because the law is after you

Chorus

Com and Co such a long way
From the murder line
And all you do is ride

Chorus

Bridge

Ride like the wind
Through the great unknown

Ride like the wind

Hey alone

Chorus, Chorus

LIFE IS SO FINE

Feel like wasting time
Cool wind that blows Over ice and snow*

When you come down in the morning
When you come down to this valley
When you come down in the morning
Things will be fine
Going to keep a candle burning
Going to keep a fire burning
Going to keep a candle burning
All the time

Chorus

I love these hills until the day I die
I breathe the air and I get dry

First verse

Chorus

I see the Kennet calling I can all most see the water
And did feel so fine to tell I'm doing well

Green Machine in tune

RIPONEA resident Sam Green is making a musical comeback.

The veteran poet and singer-songwriter has formed the band Sam Green and the Three Machines with fellow musician Peter Madden.

The folk and indie duo play live a Green and Garfunkel style.

"It's a cross between James Taylor and Van Morrison... It's a bit like Simon and Garfunkel," Green said.

Green, who started playing guitar at 18, performed at clubs around Melbourne during the 1970s and '80s and played covers by Bob Dylan, James Taylor and Arto Oskarin.

He formed the Green Machine band in the mid-'90s, releasing nine albums over his 40-year career.

Performing vocals and guitar, with Madden on back-up vocals and lead guitar, the pair have so far been hired to play at several venues around Melbourne.

Sam is set to strut his stuff

MICK MURPHY recently had the opportunity to speak with songwriter Sam Green

Sam Green is a poet by nature. He writes from the heart and soul. And like all good songwriters he lets the music share the emotion of his words.

There is little wonder then that he lists Bob Dylan as one of his idols. 'We have actually corresponded', remarked Sam. 'I have sent him tapes and he has answered my letters.'

Dylan aside, Sam plays his own style influenced by a mix of Arlo Guthrie, Russell Morris and even Beethoven. 'It's a strange mix I know', says Sam, 'but it's what I love doing and the audience always seems to enjoy it.'

This 37 year-old songwriter has already made two video clips and both have been screened on the ABC programme 'Rage'. He has also appeared on CH 31 and community radio stations around Melbourne.

Always ready to support a cause, he organised a benefit concert for community station 3CR and had acts like Steve Hoy, Broderick Smith and Chris Wilson on the bill.

Sam has played at venues all over Melbourne, including the Esplanade Hotel in St Kilda. 'My music went down well there. The punters enjoyed it and so did I.' He currently has a tape for sale called 'Players All Are We'. However, having completed his third album, the videos and the community radio work, Sam now wants to get back to what he loves best - writing songs and performing live. 'The band that I had (The Time Machine) was a great time in my life and I would like the opportunity to perform that sort of magic again.'

Sam Green & the Time Machine — Love Has Its Answers

Buy it from InSound Get this on iTunes

Australian singer/songwriter Sam Green covets the indie rock notion that lately finds artists using intriguing recording techniques. The sound is lo-fi, warm, and extremely personal—almost as if the time machine and Sam were right in your living room inviting you to jam along. Vocally he can sometimes stumble, lingering on a note until his voice breaks, but that's what gives the album its unique personality. I like it a lot and look forward to him touring the states.

This branch has no leaves
Its going to flower when it can
It got roots to the ground Its going to grow and grow and grow its love has no end

its got love deep within its grow in the heart of men and peace will rule the world and peace will be your friend

deep within us all

no child shall be alone and love will rule this earth everyone shall have what they need and everyone shall live in peace for love has its reward and no other will be left behind love is more than freedom you know that its time in order to be as one we must learn and we must grow and look after each other for the good of all mankind

"Life is just what you make it in this world; That questions every move."

Creative singer/songwriter Salaam Shalom Green, alias Sam Green, grew up in Melbourne, Australia within a musical family. His father was a poet, and the family would gather each Sunday, singing together for hours.

He is best described as a cross between James Taylor and Van Morrison with a Spanish guitar and a voice that will launch a thousand sailing ships...

"It's not the money I do it for. It's the healing process for myself and those listening."

So, power to the people who help him excel, find him work, let him sing his songs. As the pillars of society do good, and he will do good in return. Let's share his talent and the gift he was born with.

Sam is available for large or small gatherings, from coffee shops to major venues, concerts, festivals, schools, clubs, radio, television, or the media.
